“Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Rise, pick up your mat and walk?’ But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority to forgive sins on earth” — he said to the paralytic, “I say to you, rise, pick up your mat, and go home.”

Did You Know?

Ashes . . .

Lent begins with ashes – a traditional sign of mourning, grieving, and repentance for both Jews and Christians (Is. 58:5; Mt. 11:21). Through the early centuries of Christian history, those who committed serious sins had to do penance, sometimes for years. One of the signs of a penitent (as they were called) was ashes or dirt on the person's head. By the early Middle Ages, the practice became a more general Lenten tradition for all Christians, focused on the beginning of Lent. It became a way for Christians to publicly mark their sorrow for sin and to symbolically ready themselves to cast that sin away and open themselves to God during the weeks to come.

This week, as we receive a cross of ashes on our foreheads, we're reminded of who we are: creatures in need of God's love and forgiveness. The readings for Ash Wednesday offer us good guidance for the journey we are taking throughout the next few weeks.

Lenten Season 2012

The 2012 Lenten Season begins with the observance of Ash Wednesday on February 22. The regulations pertaining to fast and abstinence are as follows:

- † Catholics who have celebrated their 14th birthday are to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, and each Friday of Lent;
- † Catholics who have celebrated their 18th birthday, in addition to abstaining from meat, should fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Hence on those days they should eat only one full meal. Small quantities of food may be taken at two other meals, but no food should be consumed at other times during those two days. The obligation of fasting ceases with the celebration of one's 59th birthday.

Catholics should not take lightly or excuse themselves from these prescribed minimal penitential practices.

Traditional Latin Mass

The Traditional Latin Mass will be celebrated on Sunday, February 26 at Holy Name of Jesus Parish at 3:00 PM. Rosary will begin at 2:40 PM, with Confessions heard at 2:30 PM.
